NOVEMBER 29 - DECEMBER 3, 2011
SHUT DOWN

ALEC thinks they're meeting in Scottsdale, AZ
this November...

The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) is planning on meeting in Scottsdale, AZ for their annual State and National Policy Summit from November 30 through December 2, 2011.

ALEC itself is a tool for hundreds of corporations to use for the sole purpose of obtaining access to thousands of legislators and then exploiting that access to pass profit-making legislation. ALEC finalized the model legislation which became, almost word for word, Arizona's SB1070. It's the latest in the historical pattern of colonization, slave codes, convict leasing, and the drug war, that CREATES crimes and therefore criminals, for profit.

Come to Phoenix! We will not allow ALEC to further criminalize and oppress our communities!

Organize an action in your community for November 30th!

LET'S SHUT THEM DOWN!

STOP SUPPORTING BIG BUSINESS!
SPEND YOUR CASH AT INDEPENDANT MERCHANTS!

The wealthiest 20 percent of Americans made more money in 2007 than the rest of the country combined. Banks & corporations own 'big box' retailers & major brands. They've brought us convenience & very low prices to enable us while we work busily to pay down our debts (to them). Wal-Mart employees only earn enough to shop at Wal-Mart. In oppressive mining towns of frontier times this was called "the company store". Now, in 2011 this 'work for us, shop from us' model has gone global! It doesn't take a business degree to understand basic fairness. Most of us learned that in kindergarten.

"Saint Peter don't you call me 'cause I can't go, I owe my soul to the company store..."

MOTION AT HEART The "Indignant ones". The "Wall St." occupation. (The "60's")

MOTION is PERPETUAL. NEVER an END ALWAYS (TO) BE."

--Ren Morea

<http://e-blast.squarespace.com/journal/2011/10/30/vol-4915.html>

One of the reasons I moved to Chicago in 2003 was how deeply I was impressed by the mix of art and activism I saw during the events held in opposition to the TransAtlantic Business Dialogue (TABD) meeting that was held there the previous year.

"We're looking for people who like to draw"

One of the groups that most impressed me prints the journal Lumpen. At that time they had a loft in Wicker Park called the Buddy Space. There was a TransAtlantic Booty Dancing Party there after the last day of actions against the TABD. There was paper covering the walls so people could paint, letter set presses printing posters for another protest the next month, music, pinatas of a cop and a capitalist and films being shown outdoors on the roof! After a couple of years in the dry atmosphere of washed up caricatures of Leninism and anarchism that Ohio had to offer, this was real breath of fresh air and I was sold! When I moved to town I started reading Lumpen, and volunteering at the Autonomous Zone Infoshop in the nearby barrio Bucktown, another space that emphasized art and activism.

ALL YOU NEED IS REVOLUTION

FLOWER POWER WON'T STOP FASCIST POWER
THE STORY OF A SMALL, UNDERGROUND 1960s
REVOLUTIONARY GROUP IN NEW YORK CITY

About that time I became interested in the Youth International Party (Yippies) and read their co-founder Abbie Hoffman's autobiography, "Soon to Be a Major Motion Picture." I felt like there were a lot of parallels between what they were doing in Manhattan's Lower East Side in the 1960s and what we were trying to do in Chicago. While reading this book I became familiar with another organization Hoffman simply called "The Motherfuckers," who I went on to read about many times over the years under a couple other names such as The Family and Up Against The Wall Motherfucker.

It seemed like they were something different to everyone: a gang, a street gang with an analysis, an affinity group, a collective in Students for a Democratic Society. I also started to see some stories about the proceeding group Black Mask.

Last time I was in Phoenix on my way here in October, people were talking about doing water drops in the area as people have been forced to start walking that far north from Mexico. 100 or so miles as the crow flies, but anyone who has done any serious desert hiking can tell you, you'll rarely walk far in a straight line. I think all this shows that stricter border enforcement hasn't secured the border, but it has forced people into extreme situations that has resulted in deaths, rapes, and other horrific situations that could be avoided by changes in US border policy that will allow people to freely cross the border.

No More Deaths • No Más Muertes

Humanitarian Aid Is Never A Crime

By Alex the Card Weaver

The Mexican-US border is arguably a low intensity war zone. I don't use the term lightly, nor for dramatic effect. 182 people have died on the Arizonan border with Mexico from Oct. 2010 through Sept. 2011, and deportations of undocumented people hit record highs under Pres. Obama for three consecutive years with 387,790 in fiscal 2009; 392,000 in fiscal 2010, and yet another year of escalated deportations nearly reached 400,000 this fiscal year.

1999 - 2009 RECORDED MIGRANT DEATHS, USBP RESCUE BEACONS, AND HB WATER STATIONS

This map shows a total of 1755 deaths.*
Some points indicate more than one death.

From March 12-18 I was able to participate in No More Deaths' Alternative Spring Break. I volunteered for their desert relief project, making water and food drops on the trails used by people walking from Mexico to the US.

BLACK MASK & UP AGAINST THE WALL MOTHERFUCKER

THE INCOMPLETE WORKS OF RON HAHNE, BEN MOREA, AND THE BLACK MASK GROUP

This was an excellent source of materials by both groups printed when they were active. Having read a fair amount about these organizations, most recently the memoir section of "Up Against the Wall Motherfker: A Memoir of the Sixties with Notes for Next Time" by Osha Neumann, I highly recommend this book to those interested in art and activism in general, and the New Left and 1960s in particular.

"Black Mask & Up Against the Wall Motherfucker. The Incomplete Works of Ron Hahne, Ben Morea, & the Black Mask Group" by Ron Hahne & Ben Morea. Available from PM Press or in Tucson from Revolution in Grounds Books & Coffee.
