About Inside Books Project

Based in Austin, Texas, the Inside Books Project is an all-volunteer, nonprofit organization sending free books and educational materials to people in Texas prisons. Inside Books Project works to promote reading, literacy, and education among incarcerated individuals and to educate the general public on issues of incarceration.

ATTN: Resource Guide Updates
c/o 12th Street Books
827 W. 12th Street
Austin TX 78701

This Resource Guide is sent free of charge to any prisoner in the U.S. Texas prisoners may include a request with their book order. Prisoners in other states and Texas prisoners not requesting books should write to the address below. Please include a donation of two stamps if possible (but do see note on stamps on next page!).

Donating to Inside Books

Inside Books Project receives over 15,000 request letters from prisoners every year asking for free books and educational materials. We process these letters, raise funds for postage costs, collect donated books and organize them in our library, staff regular volunteer sessions to reply to the request letters, and maintain the organization necessary to oversee this process.

We have no paid staff; all this is accomplished through donations of money, books, and volunteer time.

We understand that most incarcerated individuals may not be able to contribute to these efforts. However, we invite friends and family members of prisoners to consider a contribution of money, time, and/or books to help us continue to serve the educational needs of prisoners in Texas.

Inside Books Project is always in need of:

- Money for postage — over 79% of the money we collect goes directly to postage costs, which totaled over $35,000 in 2014.
- Volunteers to answer letters and make packages for prisoners. Note that we only accept volunteer activity at our physical location — 3121 East 12th in Austin — during regular volunteer hours.
- Book donations for our library. See our website listed above for locations.

Inside Books Project is a registered 501 (c)(3) nonprofit, and all donations are tax deductible. Please see insidebooksproject.org/donate/ for information on donating.

Receiving Books from IBP

We send free books and educational materials only to Texas prisoners. Texas prisoners can send a request letter to the address under "About Inside Books Project" on the previous

CALIFORNIA COALITION FOR WOMEN PRISONERS

1540 Market Street, Suite 490
San Francisco CA 94102
<http://womenprisoners.org>
Social justice organization with members inside and out, challenges the institutional violence imposed on women, transgender people, and communities of color by the prison industrial complex. Publishes page. Please consider the following when requesting books:

One request per person every three months. We track requests based on the postmark date of your letter. For example, if you write on January 1st, we will not accept another request from you until April 1st. Requests sent more frequently are discarded.

Always include your TDCJ number, as well as your unit name, address, and information about any special guidelines and rules for receiving books in your unit.

Expect a wait from 2 to 6 months. We process your letters as quickly and efficiently as we can, but various factors, especially the request backlog, can slow progress.

Stamps. We welcome donations of stamps to offset postage costs; however you should check with your mail service which may have a policy of removing them. Please leave donated stamps on their original backing — reattached stamps are often unusable.

Getting the books you want. Our library of donated books is unlikely to have exact titles, so please suggest areas of interest (listed on back page) rather than book titles. If you state a wide range of subject areas, you'll have a better chance of ending up with a good choice. Our legal materials are particularly limited — please see the legal section of this guide for better sources.

Sharing your essays, articles, book reviews, fiction, poetry, and artwork. We love to get your work and want to hear about issues related to library access, health care, and anything else of concern to you or other prisoners. Please indicate on all submissions whether you give consent for publication — in our newsletter, on our online blog, or in fundraising projects.

Notebooks/journals. We regret that we're no longer able to send journals due to a recent ruling by TDCJ.

What's an SASE? Self-addressed stamped envelope

Español. Aceptamos cartas en español, y nuestra biblioteca incluye libros y otros materiales en español. También en estas páginas se encuentra una sección en español.

Contesting Book Denials

If books or literature mailed to you are denied by TDCJ, we recommend that you contest the denial. If a prisoner appeals a mailroom officer's decision to censor a publication, the appeal goes to the Directors Review Committee and/or the Mail System Coordinators Panel in Huntsville. Pages cited by the mailroom as inappropriate are reviewed and if the book is denied, it takes a permanent place on the banned book list.

If the panel choose to censor the book, a mailroom official is responsible for notifying you and informing you of the appeals process. Many books are banned simply because they are not appealed, and this means the book will be denied to everyone else in the TDCJ who ever requests that book. We encourage you to contest your publication denials, not only for your own sake but for future prisoners who may request the same title. To contest denials, write Ombudsman Coordinator, PO Box 99, Huntsville TX 77342-0099 or ombudsman@tdci.state.tx.us

Book denials in a federal unit may be easier to challenge — according to Federal prison policy, "when a publication is found unacceptable . . . the warden shall permit the prisoner an opportunity to review this material for purposes of filing an appeal."

To report censorship and other TDCJ abuses, write Texas Civil Rights Project, c/o The Michael Tigar Human Rights Center, 1405 Montopolis Drive, Austin TX 78741-3436, or questions@texascivilrightsproject.org

A WORD ON ORDERING BOOKS

There's no one solution to make sure prisoners receive the books they order — rules enforced by prisons and jails are as numerous as their jurisdictions. Some prisons refuse books not sent from the publisher, many accept from bookstores, some accept from bookstores with physical locations but refuse "resellers," some accept from Amazon. Some insist that books be new, some limit number of books, Assists prisoners convicted of crimes that occurred in the US (except CA, OH, WA, or WI) whose innocence can be proven through DNA testing of physical evidence. Write to request form for review or download from website. For projects accepting non-DNA cases see Innocence Network.

TEXAS INNOCENCE PROJECTS

All investigate DNA or non-DNA cases for actual innocence but do not provide legal representation. Before filing an innocence claim, read Chapter 13 of the Offender Legal Handbook (11th Ed., 2010) in your law library. If you meet requirements and criteria, fill out two forms from the Handbook: the Texas Prisoner Innocence Questionnaire and the Consent for Release of Information. Mail to one of the clinics listed below. Courts require new, clear, and convincing evidence of your innocence that was not available at time of trial and not considered by the court. If you claim innocence on convictions involving more than one victim, fill out a questionnaire for each one.
