ZINE DISTRO CATALOG 2019

Greetings, once again. Being the old and lazy cuss that I am these days, I'm going to piggyback off the previous four catalogs, so just this cover page (front & back) will include the new ones collected in 2018, plus some "blasts from the past" which I either never got around to distroing or had years ago, but they somehow slipped through the cracks from earlier catalogs and didn't find themselves in the now, last five.

There are still several others that I may resurrect in the future, but these are the ones I'm going with, now.

I want to thank my stalwart comrade, Mike, once again for doing the tireless work necessary to make all this happen so these pubs reach the eager hands and blossoming minds of those they are intended for.

We've a new 'rad, named Casey, who is spearheading his own distro in the city (Chicago, of course!) More about him, a little bit later. The folks at DePaul University are to be commended for their fantastic efforts, getting material into the gulags and hiping the students and others in the city about this distro. A yearlong prisoner artwork exhibition is finally winding down. *Thanks

In fact, I was interviewed by Chicago Magazine, by a woman who hailed from the same college I dropped out of (Grinnell College). As you might figure, it too became a zine. That's me alright - "Anarchist Grandpa."

As expected, censorship and repression are being increased, most especially to those willing, conscious and brave enough to challenge this vile slave system from the inside. Apparently, discussing these monstrous realities is of itself "dangerous." For real educating is a no-no!

As well, printing costs have skyrocketed - 33% in 2017 and another 25% in 2018. The reasoning I received was "because of all the wildfires out west." Funny, but plain boxes of paper cost about what they used to... CIAO

As you can see, there are quite a few less new zines
this year than in years previous. It is very difficult, expensive and time-consuming to keep the insane amount of zines in stock (constant ever-rising) printing costs. As well, envelopes, publishing supplies and postage (zines must be sent in as 1st class mail) are also sizeable. Finally, the donated labor Mike & I put in is off the charts! Did I mention we have families, too? Bye!

INTRODUCTION

Greetings! I had hoped to collect all the zines I have made available for distro, into one catalog. But, I didn't see the point of transcribing the over 1,200 titles and writers again, as I've done all that in the last 3 years' catalogs. So this sheet, with the cover of Lucy Parsons, this intro page, .. and the last two pages, will serve my purposes. I'll list the new zines, put together in 2016. So, it is basically a 4 - in - one catalog. It has the complete catalogs for 2015, 2016, 2017 & now, 2018. I also added a piece by Coyote Acabo, entitled Zine Machine & Blowin' Smoke. He's out of prison now - although, they sucked him back in for a little while, for defending someone at a demo in Washington state. Check him out on facebook, google him, get family members helping & be proactive.

So, please, take this collection apart and treat it as four separate catalogs. When ordering, please give the title, the year of the catalog it was listed in and the corresponding number on the left. Thank you.

As always, there are no prices on these publications, but donations in stamps or checks (made out to me, Anthony Rayson, only) are appreciated and much needed. My comrade, Mike, is still toiling away on a daily basis - after 14 straight years - and contributes his time, money and efforts, to help you (overwhelmingly prisoners) receive these publications. For that, I am in eternally grateful, because frankly, without his help, I wouldn't be able to do half the work we do and may have already closed up shop years ago, so disappointing the "solidarity" of anybody else, has been.

However, I have seen a sizable uptick in work done by the DePaul University's Special Collections Library, who house my vast zine collection. They have made presentations about this work, sent pubs to prisoners, upon request, and etc. If you want to contact them, look carefully through this collection of catalogs and you'll find their contact information. As well, if you want to contribute or have artwork or written work to add to the mix, those details are to be found in here, too.

See, that wasn't so rough, right? Gee, maybe I'm mellowing out in my dotage, eh? At any rate, go to pages 39 & 40 to see the new zines added in 2016. Take care of yourselves and others. Clench-fist salute!

SOUTH CHICAGO ABC ZINE

August Spies was born in Germany and emigrated to Chicago in 1872. A leading member of the International Working People's Association, he edited the German-language anarchist paper Arbeiter-Zeitung. Spies was a brilliant writer, in both German and English. On May 4, 1886, several days before the rally at Haymarket, Spies led a parade of 80,000 workers up Michigan Avenue as part of the national strike for an eight-hour work day.

AUG. SPIES.

Spies was the first speaker at the Haymarket rally and left before its fiery conclusion. He was convicted with the other seven accused, and hanged in 1887. His final words inspired unionists and anarchists alike: "The day will come when our silence will be more powerful than the voices you are throttling today."

I want to thank my comrade Mike, who has worked tirelessly with me for ten solid years. Without his dedication this distro would not have been able to provide the huge number of zines - basically for nothing - to tens of thousands of prisoners throughout the vast gulag archipelago that is Amerikkka. We have no source of grant money or even any type of assistance, other than the daily hard work we put into this each and every day, ourselves! All expenses are borne by us. Many have claimed to be willing to help in some way, but almost invariably, those claims have not been backed up by actual effort. We therefore must rely totally upon our own efforts to make this vital education a reality. We really are not very difficult dudes!

We appreciate donations in stamps &/or money orders / checks made out to Anthony Rayson only. This project is our contribution to the struggle and overwhelmingly these publications go to prisoners. We try to provide as many of the zines you would like in as timely a manner as we can. Solidarity is very important.

 the number in parenthesis is the number of sheets each zine consists of. We maximize each packet to the ounce.*

The numbers indicate how many sheets each publication is comprised of. Four sheets make the first ounce, ten for two ounces, sixteen for three, nineteen for 3 1/2, twenty-two for four ounces and twenty-eight sheets make for a five-ounce packet. After that, the packet gets too thick and the prices of mailing, once again jumps up, as it does after three and three and one-half ounces.

With the three catalogs - 2015, 2016 and this one, there are now approximately 1,200 different publications available. Bear in mind, this is an insanely work-intensive, expensive and time-consuming project to pull off. Printing costs have risen 35% in just the last year! Postage went down slightly, but is still a very costly expense. As well, it is extremely difficult to keep track of so many different pubs and to keep them in stock. Phooey on all those who don't help us!

All of these zines are also housed at the DePaul University's Special Collections Library. They are willing to send, I believe, up to twenty single-sided pages, upon request.

Censorship from the prisons is increasing, although I've never had a problem with the post office or the people who do our printing (except for printing errors). As always, it is the government and their functionaries who are trying to keep information that they don't like from the eyes and brains of people - particularly prisoners.

This is a two-man collective and has been for many years. Mike's daily contribution to this distro has allowed tens of thousands of prisoners to get hipped to the "brutal truth!" Thanks, Mike. You rock!

South Chicago ABC 2017 Zine Catalog

Greetings! These are the zines added and made available in 2016. When requesting titles, be mindful of which catalog you are drawing from, their number and title. The full archive of titles also includes the catalogs of 2016 & 2015. We've never gotten a penny from any funding sources outside our own pockets and the paltry contributions from prisoners, so any and all donations are greatly appreciated and totally sunk back into the costs of printing and mailing. Solidarity!

* These last three publications were created by a grassroots group located in Pembroke Township in Hopkins Park, located in Kankakee County, Illinois. At that time, they were fighting the creation of a large women's prison, which was supposedly going to bring them "economic benefits." They knew this was a horrible idea and were able to defeat this evil plan. Nowadays, similar forces are attempting to build a regional (Midwest) immigration detention prison at this site!

51. All Lives Matter Panel Questions - By, Anthony Rayson	3

* James Adrian is a prisoner at Robert Cotton Correctional Facility, located in Jackson, Michigan. He is also the Vice-President of Lifers of America. He helped to organize an event at the prison, whereas outside prison activists could address the prisoners there. Although the prisoners' questions were censored, they still brought up significant issues. I was invited to attend this event and drove the 230 miles out there to participate. Shortly before we were to meet with the prisoners, I was ushered into a room and barred from the event by some prisonrat. Of course, the prisoners were not told why I was not there. The real intent of this was to somehow lessen the antipathy felt by people towards the police - and by extension - the prison officials. After you read my answers, you'll probably see why the gulag officials and their censor trolls detest this particular distro.
