ATES

Office and ask for or to speak to a counselor so ency Supplement Benefits of 1,5000.

unprepared to hold a job, show them your parole
that you are just getting out of prison.

THIN 72 HOURS)

ms for the $3.10 Monthly Disability Benefit for that you as an ex-offender do in fact have emotional problems, it is considered by both Federal and State Rehabilitation Commission to be a Disability. According to the current policies, mental and emotional problems constitute a 100% Disability , moreover, you will be considered to have this disability until you have become a "productive member" of society. The whole purpose of supplemental social income, .SSI is to help you as a recently released ex-felon by relieving part of the Economic Pressures you will be facing as you are Re-entering society and try to re-establish yourself as a productive member of your community.

After your release, you , as a parolee or otherwise will qualify for assistance of up to $310.00 per month, although you do qualify, you will only be able to receive you SSI benefits payable quarterly. In addition, you can qualify for SSI benefits while you are still in prison waiting to be released. Now by law you have only 30 hours after you are released to reach the nearest social security office and submit your application. It is necessary that you take the required steps before your release date and apply for these benefits or you will lose the opportunity to take advantage of SSI, so 90 days prior to you release send in your application to be processed. You should have a check waiting for you. $930.00 Supplemental Social Income is covered under United States Law 42 U.S.138 (e); 20 CFR 416.305.

1. Ninety days before release, write a letter to the social security office where you live. They will send you five question applications. Fill it out as accurately as possible and then return it to the nal problems, it is considered by both Federal Disability. According to the current policies, Disability , moreover, you will be considered "productive member" of society. The whole o help you as a recently released ex-felon by ill be facing as you are Re-entering society member of your community.

se will qualify for assistance of up to $310.00 y be able to receive you SSI benefits payable efits while you are still in prison waiting to be er you are released to reach the nearest social cessary that you take the required steps before u will lose the opportunity to take advantage application to be processed. You should have ocial Income is covered under United States ocial security office where you live. They will ccurately as possible and then return it to the

The First 30 Hours upon release!

EX-OFFENDERS
BUREAU OF PRISONS
BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO FORMER INMATES
(including those in halfway houses)
SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE
WELFARE DEPARTMENT
STATE REHABLILITATION OFFICE

Go immediately to the nearest Social Security Office and ask for or to speak to a counselor so that you can apply for Social Insurance Emergency Supplement Benefits of 1,5000.

Explain that you are emotionally and mentally unprepared to hold a job, show them your parole or Mandatory Release papers in order to prove that you are just getting out of prison.

(YOU SHOULD RECEIVE THE CHECK WITHIN 72 HOURS)

While at the Office, fill out the necessary forms for the $3.10 Monthly Disability Benefit for